

PRIVACY POLICY

SENES Consultants Limited is committed to respecting your privacy and protecting your personal information. This Privacy Policy explains our current information management practices for our Web site.

Personal Information We Collect

In general, when you visit our Web site and access information you remain anonymous. We may collect Internet domain names and/or Internet protocol (IP) addresses of visitors but we do not use cookies. We will not collect your personal information unless you voluntarily choose to provide this information through our Web site or e-mail correspondence. We collect and store your e-mail address from any communications that you may send to us by clicking on any e-mail link. The information collected from you may include your name, address, telephone, fax number, or e-mail address.

Use of Collected Information

Any Internet domain names and/or Internet protocol (IP) addresses collected are used to measure viewer statistics, such as the number of viewers, pages viewed, etc. This information is used to improve our Web site. We may also analyze information that does not contain personal information for trends and statistics.

Personal information you give us will be used only to provide the service or information you have requested. This information will not be sold, rented or licensed to a third party.

Disclosure of Information

We will only release information about you if you direct us to do so, or if we are required by law to do so.

Protecting your Privacy

SENES will use reasonable security safeguards to protect your personal information against unauthorized access, use, disclosure, loss, modification or destruction.

Access to Collected Information

You may review and update the information that you provide through this Web site by contacting us as described below.

Links to Other Sites

SENES may provide links to Web sites solely for your information and convenience. When you link to an outside Web site, we are not responsible for the content, security or privacy practices employed by these sites.
